Address by Rev. Ritchey at St. John's Church.

The annual commencement of the Wich ita Training School for Nurses took place just night at the First Presbyterias church. The training school is in connection with the Wichita hospital and is one of the most up to date schools in the west. It has been only in recent years that nurses' training schools have been organized and Wichita people should well be proud of this institution, which has been sending out well trained nurses to fill responsible places. Yew people realine just what responsibility rests on the nurses and that many times it is a case of life or death with very small day; phances either way.
